

The Paw Paw Public Library District's Summer Reading Program, "A Summer of Holidays", was on June 8. Dan the Leprechaun, Holly the Elf on the Shelf and the Easter Bunny all made appearances. There was even a Halloween trick-or-treat doors where kids could get a treat of candy or a trick of magic.
