

Display case collection of chickens is on loan from Adriana K. age 7 1/2yrs.

She doesn't remember when she started collecting chickens, but the first chicken she ever received was Pretty Nugget. He was a gift from her mom and she collects chickens because her mom likes chickens.

Adriana has a total of 21 chickens. There are only 19 in the case because her two favorites are at home, Boo Boo Chicken and Nugget.

Most of the chickens have been gifts from her Granny, Nana, her mom's friends and Aunts

On the top shelf, the two chickens on the left are puppets. Their names are Boss Chicken and Stretchy Legs. Adriana told me 'I just like doing crazy things with them.'

Staying on the top shelf the four little chickens in the barn/hen house don't have names, nor the ones in front of the barn/hen house. The hen house/barn opens up to look like a green field.

The two chickens on the far right are named Fancy or Pretty Nugget and Butter Chicken.

On the bottom shelf, far left is Fluffy Chicken. He is made from alpaca fur and came from a fiber fest in Ohio. Next to Fluffy Chicken is Color Chicken, Chicken, a chicken with no name, Ribbon, Adriana Chicken and on the far right, the chicken that looks similar to an eagle is named Clifford. Clifford is named after the big red dog and is owned by Adriana's mom. It is made of alpaca fur just like Fluffy Chicken

The puzzle, bottom center, was a gift from one of her mom's friends. It is hand cut and painted. Adriana says it's a double puzzle because "there are eggs under the chicken."

Adriana also has a chicken clock at home which has legs hanging down that swing. She also has a chicken costume which you can see above.

She did have live chickens at home once, but the coyotes got to them.
