

Do you have a collection you would like to share (and put on display)?

The case in the hallway outside the library door is available to do just that. Ask Kathy or Barbara (in the library) for a form and talk to them about how to get your collection on display.

